FREQUENTLY ASKED Questions

The following tips may be helpful when considering making nominations for NAEA Awards. Descriptions for each award and the materials required for nomination are listed on the following pages. Please refer to these descriptions before submitting a nomination.

Who may nominate?

Individual Members, State/Province Associations, and Issues Groups may make nominations.

Who is eligible?

NAEA members who meet the established criteria are eligible to be nominated for awards. However, membership is not required for the Distinguished Service Outside the Profession and COMC J. Eugene Grigsby, Jr. Awards.

How are awards selected?

The NAEA National Office verifies that all nominees are eligible and that their nomination information is complete. Nominations are then sorted and forwarded to the individual who oversees the selection committee for each award.

Nominations are scored using a standardized rubric. Results are reported to the NAEA National Office.

State/Province Associations select State/Province Award recipients and submit their names (using the official form) to the national office. Please contact your state association for nomination guidelines.

Please Note: If no nominees meet the criteria for a specific award, a recipient will not be selected.

What is the deadline for nominations?

Unless otherwise stated in the award description, nomination packets as well as State/Province Art Educator Award notification forms must be submitted to the NAEA National Office postmarked on or before October 1.

Please Note: The NAEA National Office processes and ships over 100 awards to the National Convention. Nominations for national and regional awards cannot be accepted after the deadline. State/Province Art Educator Award notification forms postmarked after October 1 will be processed on a delayed basis and may not be shipped for presentation at the National Convention.

When are awards presented?

Most awards are presented in the spring at the NAEA National Convention. Any awards not presented at the Convention will be mailed to the recipient.

How are awards publicized?

A press release announcing the selection of each award may be sent by NAEA to two employers, media outlets, or school administrators of the recipient's choosing. All award recipients are announced in the NAEA News as well as on the NAEA website.

What should I submit?

Necessary nomination materials vary. Please refer to individual award descriptions for submission requirements.

Who should write nomination and support letters?

Letters of nomination must be written by the NAEA member who is making the nomination. Letters supporting the nomination can be written by NAEA members, as well as non-members.

Where should I send nominations?

Unless otherwise specified in the award description, NAEA Awards nomination materials should be sent in their entirety to the NAEA National Office via physical mail: NAEA Awards, 1916 Association Drive, Reston, VA 20191-1590; or via e-mail: awards@arteducators.org

Do I need to submit all required documents together?

Whether submitting via physical mail or electronically, required nomination documents should not be submitted separately. In order for a nomination to be considered complete, all necessary materials must be submitted to the NAEA National Office together. If you are making multiple nominations, they can be submitted together as long as they are clearly divided and contain all items required for the nomination for each specific award.

Can I submit a nomination electronically?

Nominations may be submitted electronically via e-mail to awards@arteducators.org, or on a disk mailed to the NAEA National Office. When submitting a nomination digitally, all materials required for nomination must be submitted together digitally in order for the nomination to be considered complete.

Where can I find a digital version of the forms?

A PDF version of this booklet and nomination forms can be found at: www.arteducators.org. In order to save these forms after you have completed them digitally, you must have the most current version of Adobe Acrobat Reader.

About the NAEA Awards Program

The first NAEA Award, “NAEA Art Educator of the Year,” was presented at the 1955 National Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, by Dr. Edwin Ziegfeld, the first President of NAEA. In 1977 the NAEA Awards Program was initiated to recognize outstanding art educators in all divisions and regions, and from each state and province. Growing in scope since its inception, the program continues to add new awards.

The objectives of the NAEA Awards Program are:

- To recognize excellence in the many outstanding individuals, state/province associations, and programs of NAEA,
- To focus professional attention on quality art education and exemplary art educators,
- To increase public awareness of the importance of quality art education,
- To set standards for quality art education and show how they can be achieved, and
- To provide tangible recognition of achievement, earn respect of colleagues, and enhance professional opportunities for NAEA members.

Dr. F. Robert Sabol, NAEA President-Elect, and Doug Blandy, 2010 NAEA National Art Educator

“My immersion in the arts has shaped my understanding and appreciation of the myriad cultural perspectives that exist globally and within the United States...Adults, youth, and children should be guaranteed the right to their own history; free and equitable access to culture, tradition, education, and public speech; and the construction of culture.”
