Media
Year of the Creation

There will be CAEA and Fresno State awards given to both outstanding students and teachers. Among them, a senior high school student from the Central Area will be selected as our Ruth Jansen Award winner and given a cash award. The funding for this award is provided by a special memorial trust fund established in memory of Ruth Jansen by her family, friends, and the community. We are grateful for the support and recognition this has provided for students. Read more about Ruth Jansen:

Also, Fresno State College of Arts and Humanities and Center for Creativity and the Arts will select awards to honor your inspiration and guidance for your students and celebrate their achievements. We are truly thankful for their support and recognition as well. Visit the websites to learn more about Fresno State' College of Arts and Humanities, <http://fresnostate.edu/artshum/>, and Center for Creativity and the Arts, <https://fresnostate.edu/artshum/cca/>

Lastly, please take care to ensure that you have all permissions to use your students' images and artist statements on our website. After the jurying process if your students' artworks are selected for the exhibition, we might ask you to sign a "Student Photo Release Form."

Each year, the CAEA website displays photos of YAM winners and their teachers next to the image of each winning artwork. Here is the CAEA website for your reference: <https://www.caea-arteducation.org/yam>

If you have any questions about the exhibit, please contact Dr. Ahran Koo at akoo@csufresno.edu and/or CAEA Central Area President Jamee Eaton at jamee\_eaton@kernhigh.org

Thank you for your participation.
